The parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

   (a) "COMPAQ Subsidiary" shall mean a company in which, on a class by class basis, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock entitled to vote for the election of directors is owned or controlled by COMPAQ, but only so long as such ownership or control exists. COMPAQ hereby guarantees each of its COMPAQ Subsidiaries' performance under this Agreement. Upon request, COMPAQ shall provide MS with the name and address of its COMPAQ Subsidiaries.

   (b) "Customer System" shall mean the computer system product(s) described in the Exhibit(s) C manufactured and/or distributed by COMPAQ.

   (c) "Product Support Services" ("PSS") shall mean MS' then standard product support service(s) offered to OEMs.

   (d) "Product" or "Products" shall mean the MS software products described in the attached Exhibit(s) C and successor/replacement products, including where applicable the specified user documentation. "Product software" or "Product documentation" shall mean the software or documentation components of the Product.

   (e) "Product Release" shall mean a release of Product which is designated by MS in its sole discretion as a change in the digit(s) to the left of the decimal point in the Product version number [(x).xx] or a change in the annual identifier (e.g. 97 or 1997).

   (f) "Version Release" shall mean a release of Product which is designated by MS in its sole discretion as a change in the tenths digit in the Product version number [x.(x)].

   (h) "Upgrade" shall mean a full or partial replacement copy of the Product provided to an existing end user of the Product on a Customer System. COMPAQ shall establish a reasonable procedure to assure the return or destruction of any replaced Product. The packaging for Upgrade Product shall indicate that it is intended as an "upgrade" only (or similar wording) and not for use by a new customer. Copies of Product not strictly in conformance herewith shall not be considered Upgrade Product.

   (i) "Authorized Replicator" shall mean a third party approved by MS from which COMPAQ shall acquire Product software, AP and Product end user documentation reproduced in accordance with MS specifications. MS shall provide COMPAQ with a list of Authorized Replicators and shall notify COMPAQ from time to time of changes to this list. (j) "Associated Product Materials" or "APM" shall mean a certificate of authenticity, an end user license agreement, a MS product registration card, and/or other materials designated by MS which COMPAQ shall acquire from an Authorized Replicator.

2. LICENSE GRANT

(a) MS grants to COMPAQ the following nonexclusive, worldwide license rights:

(i) to adapt the Product software as necessary to enable Product software to execute on COMPAQ’s Customer System(s);

(ii) to reproduce and install no more than one (1) copy of each release of Product software in object code form on each Customer System solely on COMPAQ premises by COMPAQ employees or, if applicable, by Third-Party Installers, as defined in Exhibit I; and

(iii) to grant to COMPAQ Subsidiaries all rights granted to COMPAQ herein (except that COMPAQ Subsidiaries may not further grant rights to third parties); and

(iv) to distribute directly or indirectly and license the Product software in object code form to end users, under the terms of COMPAQ’s end user license agreement provided that when Product software is preinstalled on Customer System, COMPAQ may distribute only one back-up copy of Product software with each Customer System at no additional royalty. Unless specifically noted otherwise in the applicable Exhibit(s) C, Product shall be distributed by COMPAQ preinstalled on Customer Systems as per Section 2(a)(ii). If COMPAQ chooses to distribute back-up media, such media shall be in diskette, CD-ROM or other media form as acquired from Authorized Replicator.

(b) unless specifically noted otherwise in the applicable Exhibit(s) C, COMPAQ’s license shall extend to, and each Product shall be deemed to include any Update Releases and any Version Releases that COMPAQ acquires under Section 4 and elects to distribute under this Agreement.

(c) MS grants COMPAQ the right to distribute Product documentation to end users of Customer Systems. COMPAQ shall obtain Product documentation only from Authorized Replicators. COMPAQ may distribute supplemental Product documentation to end users of Customer Systems provided that any such supplemental documentation be consistent with Product documentation. COMPAQ may adapt Product documentation as necessary for distribution in media other than hard copy media. Upon written request, MS shall provide COMPAQ with Product documentation in electronic form for use solely to perform such adaptations. Upon written request, COMPAQ may translate the Product documentation but only into languages other than those for which MS either currently has translations or intends to create translations within nine (9) months of COMPAQ’s request. COMPAQ shall submit any translated Product documentation to MS for approval prior to distribution. MS shall respond to any such request within thirty (30) days.

(d) COMPAQ’s rights hereunder shall not extend to Product source code unless an Exhibit S is attached and executed.

(e) All rights not expressly granted, including without limitation translation rights, are reserved by MS.

(f) Upon COMPAQ’s request, MS agrees to negotiate in good faith with COMPAQ to license other MS products not available to COMPAQ under this Agreement at MS’ then applicable price(s), terms and conditions.

(g) COMPAQ shall include APM with Product software distributed by COMPAQ.
3. PRICE AND PAYMENT

(a) COMPAQ agrees to pay MS the amount(s) and within the times stated in this Section 3, Exhibit(s) B, and Exhibit(s) C. COMPAQ’s obligation to pay such amounts is unconditional except as is otherwise expressly stated to the contrary herein.

(b) Prices stated are exclusive of any federal, state, municipal or other governmental taxes, duties, licenses, fees, excises or tariffs now or hereafter imposed on COMPAQ’s production, storage, licensing, sale, transportation, import, export or use of a Product. Such charges shall be paid by COMPAQ, or in lieu thereof, COMPAQ shall provide an exemption certificate acceptable to MS and the applicable authority. MS, however, shall be responsible for all taxes based upon its personal property ownership and gross or net income. A finance charge of one and one-half percent (1-1/2%) per month will be assessed on all amounts that are past due.

(c) Except where otherwise provided, COMPAQ agrees to make consolidated (i.e. on behalf of COMPAQ and COMPAQ subsidiaries) quarterly reports and payments to MS within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, and forty-five (45) days after termination or expiration for the final full or partial quarter. COMPAQ’s quarterly report shall provide the information described in the applicable Exhibit C for each Product licensed hereunder, and shall be signed by a duly authorized representative of COMPAQ. COMPAQ shall submit quarterly reports even if no royalties or other amounts are due for such quarter. COMPAQ shall use the royalty reporting form attached as Exhibit R or other form as the parties may agree to from time to time.

(d) No royalty shall accrue to MS for copies of a Product (including Product documentation) (i) used solely for testing systems; (ii) shipped as replacement copies for copies found to be defective in materials, manufacture, or reproduction; (iii) used for demonstrations to prospective customers not to exceed five hundred copies (500) per each Product, provided diskettes and documentation for such copies are marked "For Demonstration Only" or the like; or (iv) provided as back-up copies to end users.

(e) MS shall provide all new releases of Product (including OPK/ODK) licensed under this Agreement to COMPAQ no later than the date such new releases are provided to other MS customers.

4. ACCEPTANCE AND WARRANTY

(a) Within sixty (60) days after the later of COMPAQ’s execution of this Agreement or MS’ delivery to COMPAQ of each Product licensed hereunder, COMPAQ shall either accept such Product or report deviations from specifications in writing. COMPAQ is not required to accept or reject test versions of a Product (e.g., Alpha or Beta test versions). Conformance to specifications as referenced in the applicable Exhibit C shall solely determine acceptability. If COMPAQ does not report deviations from Product specifications within the sixty (60) day period, or if COMPAQ ships the Product to a customer for revenue, COMPAQ shall be deemed to have accepted the Product.

(b) If COMPAQ reports any deviations from Product specifications prior to acceptance then MS shall have sixty (60) days to correct such deviations. Upon delivery of a corrected release of Product to COMPAQ, COMPAQ shall have sixty (60) days in which to re-evaluate the corrected release for conformance to specifications as provided in Section 4(a). If any deviations from specifications reported before acceptance are not eliminated in the sixty (60) day correction period, then as COMPAQ’s sole remedy (i) the Product may be retained at an equitable adjustment in price as may be agreed by the parties, or (ii) the correction period may be extended as may be agreed by the parties, or (iii) failing any agreement, COMPAQ may reject the Product, and provided that COMPAQ has rejected the first version of each released Product licensed under this Agreement, COMPAQ may terminate this Agreement.

(c) MS represents that each Product meets the specifications referenced in the applicable Exhibit C, except for deviations from specifications attributable to Authorized Replicators’ manufacturing of Product. If COMPAQ reports any deviations from specifications in a Product following acceptance and during the term of this Agreement, then COMPAQ’s sole remedy MS agrees to use reasonable efforts to correct such deviations. COMPAQ’s notice of any deviations from Product specifications shall be made using the OnLine system, the notice provisions of Section 15 or COMPAQ’s designated MS support engineer. MS’ obligations under this Section 4(e) as to a particular release of a Product shall cease at such time that MS discontinues support for such release of Product.

(d) If any Product licensed hereunder has not yet been released by MS, MS shall have no liability for failure to deliver such Product by any particular date or within the term of this Agreement. COMPAQ shall not distribute for revenue any release of a Product until MS gives its written approval of such distribution by its OEMs generally. COMPAQ shall receive such approval no later than approval granted to any other OEM.

(e) Except as expressly provided, this Agreement does not include technical support. Such support is available separately as an option pursuant to Microsoft’s standard PSS Agreement(s) at MS’ then standard rates.

5. INDEMNIFICATION FOR INFRINGEMENT

(a) MS represents and warrants that:

(i) the Products or combination of Products do not infringe any copyright or patent enforceable under the laws of any country listed in Section 5(d); and

(ii) the Products do not violate the trade secret rights of a third party; and

(iii) MS has the right to grant the rights it has granted under this Agreement (except as to copyrights or patents enforceable under the laws of any countries not listed in Section 5(d)).

MS agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend COMPAQ from and against any and all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, incurred in connection with a claim which, if true, would constitute a breach of the foregoing warranties (hereinafter “Infringement Claims”); provided MS is notified promptly in writing of an Infringement Claim and has sole control over its defense or settlement, and COMPAQ provides reasonable assistance in the defense of the same.

(b) Following notice of an Infringement Claim, MS may at its expense, but without obligation to do so, procure for COMPAQ the right to continue to market, use and have others use, the alleged infringing Product or, without obligation to do so, may replace or modify the Product to make it non-infringing (“Non-Infringing Product”). If MS elects to replace or modify the Product, such replacement shall meet substantially the specifications as provided or referenced in the applicable Exhibit C and shall be subject to the acceptance provisions of this Agreement. Microsoft agrees to reimburse COMPAQ for its reasonable and identifiable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in removing, reworking, or replacing (except as to royalties/fees for Non-Infringing Products or Non-Infringing non-MS products) Affected product including copies on Customer Systems, channel inventory, and COMPAQ’s inventory (including work-in-progress and finished goods). In the event MS requests or a court of competent jurisdiction orders that COMPAQ recall or take any other action with respect to Affected Product (on account of an Infringement Claim), then MS shall reimburse COMPAQ for its reasonable and identifiable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such recall or other action. MS payments for the above described out-of-pocket expenses shall be no greater than Product royalties which are due and/or have been paid by COMPAQ for Products after the effective date of this Section 5(b). For purposes of this Section 5 (b) “out-of-pocket” expenses shall include direct labor and materials, transportation, mailing costs, media costs, rework fees and the like, but shall exclude overhead. The term “Affected Product” shall mean any product that breaches any of the warranties set forth in Section 5(a)(ii), 5(a)(ii), and/or 5(a)(iii) as a result of a decision rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction of any Product designated as such by Should a court of competent jurisdiction order or MS request that Affected Product be removed from a Customer Systems, then (1) where MS provides Non-Infringing Product, royalties for such removed Affected Products shall not be refunded and shall be due, as applicable, and such royalties shall be included in the above out-of-pocket expense limit and (2) where MS does not provide Non-Infringing Product, royalties previously paid for such removed Affected Products shall be refunded or shall not be due, as applicable, and such royalties shall not be included in the above out-of-pocket expense limit. COMPAQ shall cooperate with MS so as to minimize any such out-of-pocket expenses.

(c) MS shall have no liability for any Infringement Claim based on COMPAQ's (i) use or distribution of any Product commencing the earlier of sixty (60) days after MS' notice that COMPAQ should cease use of distribution of such Product due to an Infringement Claim, or sixty (60) days after MS provides COMPAQ with complete Non-Infringing Product which passes COMPAQ's standard acceptance tests, or (ii) combination of a Product with a non-MS program or data (other than mere distribution of Product with Customer System), if such Infringement Claim would have been avoided by the exclusive use of the Product or combination of Products when used for their intended purposes. For all Infringement Claims arising under this section 5(c), COMPAQ agrees to indemnify and defend MS from and against all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees. Following COMPAQ's cessation of distribution of an alleged infringing Product due to an Infringement Claim, COMPAQ shall: (1) continue to pay the "per system" royalty (or "per copy", if applicable) Products which are not infringing and (2) be entitled to a pro-rata reduction of the royalty for those Customer Systems for which COMPAQ pays a royalty for a combination of the alleged infringing Product and other Products(s) based on the relative individual royalties for such Products, as applicable. (For example, if the royalty for Product A is $5.00 and the royalty for Product B is $5.00, but the royalty for the combination of Product A and Product B is $9.00, and the alleged infringing Product is Product A, then COMPAQ shall be entitled to a royalty reduction of $5.00 for those Customer Systems for which COMPAQ pays a royalty only for Product A and a royalty reduction of $4.50 for those Customer Systems for which COMPAQ pays a royalty for the combination of Product A and Product B.) In the event MS fails to provide COMPAQ with NON-Infringing Product within sixty (60) days of the date of MS' notice of an Infringement Claim, then COMPAQ may terminate this Agreement with respect to such Product. In no event shall Compaq be required to pay a "per system" royalty on a Product that has been withdrawn from marketing according to this Section.

(d) MS shall have no obligation to COMPAQ for any Infringement Claims made against COMPAQ which arise from the use or distribution of a Product outside the geographical boundaries of those countries in which MS distributes Products (including Upgrades) and COMPAQ hereby releases and discharges MS from any and all Infringement Claims resulting from use or distribution. COMPAQ shall have no obligation to notify MS of Infringement Claims in such countries and COMPAQ may respond to such Infringement Claims as it sees fit.

6. LICENSE RESTRICTIONS

(a) Unless specifically mentioned otherwise in the applicable Exhibit(s) C, COMPAQ shall market and distribute each Product only (directly or indirectly) to end user purchasers of COMPAQ's Customer System(s). Except for Upgrades, COMPAQ shall distribute and license Product(s) only with those Customer Systems listed on Exhibits C for the particular Product(s). Products shall be distributed only inside the Customer System Package and preinstalled on the Customer System. COMPAQ's Product packaging shall clearly indicate that the Product is intended for use only on such Customer System(s). COMPAQ shall make reasonable best efforts to require its distributors, dealers and others in its distribution channels to comply with the foregoing.

(b) COMPAQ shall not reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product.

(c) (i) COMPAQ shall distribute and license the use of Product to end users only pursuant to its end user license agreement ("EULA"). COMPAQ's EULA may be a "break-the-seal" end user license agreement.

the end user as agreed by the parties. COMPAQ's EULA shall conform substantially to the Sample License Agreement attached as Exhibit A, except that it shall be adapted as commercially reasonable for any foreign jurisdiction in which COMPAQ markets or distributes the Product.

(ii) The limitations of liability and remedies in COMPAQ's EULA shall inure to the benefit of MS. COMPAQ shall be the "Licensor" under its EULA.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2(a)(ii), this Agreement does not include reproduction rights.

Authorized Replicators upon COMPAQ's request.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY NOTICES

(a) COMPAQ will cause to appear on the packaging and labels of each copy of Product, the copyright, trademark or patent notices for the Product that appear on the applicable release of the Product as provided to COMPAQ pursuant to Section 2 hereof. COMPAQ will not remove any copyright, trademark or patent notices that appear on the Product as delivered by MS. COMPAQ shall cause to appear on the title page of each volume of its documentation, and at any other location where any copyright, patent or trademark notice appears, the MS and third party copyright, patent or trademark notices that appear in the release of Product documentation from which COMPAQ's documentation is derived.

(b) COMPAQ shall market the Product only under the Product name(s) for such Product as appears on the applicable release of the Product as provided to COMPAQ. COMPAQ agrees to use the appropriate trademark, product descriptor and trademark symbol (either "™" or "®" in a superscript), and clearly indicate MS' or applicable third parties' ownership of its trademark(s) whenever the Product name is first mentioned in any advertisement, brochure or in any other manner in connection with the Product. COMPAQ shall not, at any time, use any name or trademark confusingly similar to an MS or licensed third party trademark, trade name and/or product name and agrees that its use of such trademark(s), trade name(s) and/or product name(s) shall not directly or indirectly create in or for COMPAQ any right, title or interest therein. COMPAQ shall undertake no action that will interfere with or diminish MS' right, title and/or interest in MS' or licensed third party's trademark(s), trade name(s) or Product name(s).

(c) COMPAQ's name and/or trademarks shall not be displayed in relation to the Product name in a manner which suggests that COMPAQ's name and/or trademarks are part of the Product name.
COMPAQ agrees to maintain the high level of quality accorded products associated with and marketed by MS under MS' trademarks.

(d) Except as separately licensed by MS, COMPAQ shall not use or display any MS logo in its materials or packaging.

(e) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, COMPAQ's Product packaging shall conform to guidelines to be provided by MS to COMPAQ and/or Authorized Replicators. MS agrees to discuss Product packaging alternatives with Compaq in good faith on a case-by-case basis provided such alternatives conform to MS' quality, brand and consistency standards. Approval for any such Product packaging alternatives shall be at MS' sole discretion.

(f) COMPAQ shall market each release of Product only under the version number assigned by MS to such release.

(g) Unless otherwise specified in Exhibit(s) C, COMPAQ's Product documentation and/or Customer System documentation shall advise end users that Product is supported by COMPAQ and shall include COMPAQ's (or other's) telephone support number for the Product.
(h) MS, at its own expense, will settle or defend and pay any damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, resulting from any claim made against COMPAQ by a third party for infringement or alleged infringement of the trademark, trade name or product name rights of such third party, or for unfair competition resulting from COMPAQ’s use of MS’ trademarks, trade names or product names, in the countries listed in Section 5(d); provided, that COMPAQ promptly notifies MS of any such claim. In meeting its obligations hereunder, MS may, without obligation to do so, procure for COMPAQ the right to continue to use the trademark, trade name, or product name on the Product.

8. PROHIBITION AGAINST ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLICENSE

This Agreement, and any rights or obligations hereunder, shall not be assigned or sublicensed (except as permitted hereunder) by COMPAQ. Notwithstanding the foregoing, COMPAQ may assign this Agreement (except for license rights to Source Code in Exhibit S) to a purchaser of substantially all of COMPAQ’s assets upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to MS.

9. TERM OF AGREEMENT

Provided this Agreement has been properly executed by COMPAQ and by an officer of MS, the initial term of this Agreement ("Initial Term") shall run from April 1, 1997 until March 31, 1998.

10. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by the nondefaulting party if any of the following events of default occur: (i) if either party materially fails to perform or comply with this Agreement or any provision hereof; (ii) if either party fails to strictly comply with the provisions of Section 13 or COMPAQ makes an assignment in violation of Section 8; (iii) if COMPAQ becomes insolvent or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts as they mature, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iv) if a petition under any foreign, state, or United States bankruptcy act, receivership statute, or the like, as they now exist, or as they may be amended, is filed by COMPAQ; or (v) if such a petition is filed by any third party, or an application for a receiver of COMPAQ is made by anyone and such petition or application is not resolved favorably to COMPAQ within sixty (60) days. Further, either party may terminate this Agreement as provided in Section 12(c)(ii).

(b) Termination due to a breach of Sections 6, 13, or (if applicable) S shall be effective upon notice. In all other cases, termination shall be effective thirty (30) days after notice of termination to the defaulting party if the defaults have not been cured within such thirty (30) day period. The rights and remedies of the parties provided herein shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or this Agreement.

(c) In the event of COMPAQ’s default, MS may terminate this Agreement in its entirety or as to any individual Product(s). Termination of this Agreement as to any particular Product(s) will not affect the terms and conditions of this Agreement as they apply to the other Product(s) licensed under this Agreement.

11. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION

(a) Subject to Section 11(f), within ten (10) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement, COMPAQ shall return to MS or certify the destruction of all full or partial copies of each Product in COMPAQ’s possession or under its control, including, if applicable, copies of the Product in source code form. COMPAQ and each COMPAQ Subsidiary, however, may retain an adequate number of copies of each Product in object code form and the Product documentation, and unless this Agreement has been terminated due to COMPAQ’s default, an adequate number of copies Source Code (as per Exhibit S) to be used solely for support purposes.

(b) From and after termination or expiration, COMPAQ shall not use internally nor employ any Product as part or portion of any product that COMPAQ may use, sell, assign, lease, license, or transfer to third parties. COMPAQ shall cease and desist from all use of any Product name(s) and associated trademark(s) and, upon request, deliver to MS or its authorized representatives or destroy all material upon which the Product name(s) and the associated trademarks appear.

(c) Termination of this Agreement as a result of COMPAQ’s default shall result in acceleration of COMPAQ’s obligation to pay all sums COMPAQ contracted to pay under this Agreement.

(d) End user licenses (including those granted to COMPAQ employees) properly granted pursuant to this Agreement and prior to termination of this Agreement shall not be diminished or abridged by termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(e) Sections 5, 11(a), 11(b) (second sentence), 12, 12(a), 12(b), 12(c), 13, 14, 15, 16(a), 17, 18(a), and 18(b) shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 11, except where this agreement has been terminated due to COMPAQ’s default, COMPAQ may distribute existing inventory as of the date of termination of this agreement (subject to the terms of this agreement), for a period of Sixty (60) days following such termination or expiration.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND REMEDY

(a) Except for COMPAQ’s liability for consequential damages as provided in Section 12(b), either party’s liability to the other party under any provision of this Agreement, or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall be limited to the greater of Three Million Dollars (US$3,000,000.00) or one hundred percent (100%) of the amount having then actually been paid or owed by COMPAQ to MS under Section 3. This limitation of liability is cumulative with all of a party’s expenditures being aggregated to determine satisfaction of the limit. The existence of claims or suits against more than one Product licensed under this Agreement will not enlarge or extend the limit. Each party releases the other from all obligations, liability, claims or demands in excess of the limitation. The parties acknowledge that other parts of this Agreement rely upon the inclusion of this Section 12.

(b) The rights and remedies granted to COMPAQ under Sections 4 and 5 constitute COMPAQ’s sole and exclusive remedy against MS, its officers, agents and employees for negligence, inexhaustible delay, breach of warranty, express or implied, or for any default whatsoever relating to the condition of the Product or MS’ duties to correct any deviations from specifications.

SECTIONS 4 AND 5 CONTAIN THE ONLY WARRANTIES MADE BY MS. ANY AND ALL OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, INCLUDING THOSE FOR MERCHANTABILITY AND/OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ARE EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED. EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES RESULTING FROM UNAUTHORIZED USE OR DISCLOSURE OF SOURCE CODE IN VIOLATION OF SECTION 13, NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS, UNLIQUIDATED INVENTORY, ETC.), INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, ECONOMIC OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES EVEN IF THE OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

(c) Each party hereby provides the other party an Immunity from Suit (as defined below) for the Immunity Period (as defined below) for infringement of any U.S. or foreign patent, other than a design patent or the equivalent, as to which the party has the right to assert an infringement on account of the use, manufacture, or distribution of Products and Customer Systems subject to the following.
"Immunity from Suit" shall mean:

Immunity extends to MS, and to users, licensees, purchasers and resellers of the Products for Products used, manufactured or distributed during the Immunity Period. However, the immunity shall not extend to an infringement based on the combination of the Product with a third party's product or products, where the infringement would have occurred absent the Product.

Immunity extends to COMPAQ, and to users, licensees, purchasers, and resellers of the Customer Systems for Customer Systems used, manufactured or distributed during the Immunity Period. However, the immunity shall not extend to an infringement based on the combination of the Customer System with a third party's product or products where such infringement would have occurred absent the Customer System.

"Immunity Period" shall mean:

As to MS' grant of Immunity from Suit, the Immunity Period as to a Customer System shall commence on the first date of issuance of any of the applicable MS patents and shall terminate upon the date on which such Customer System is no longer subject to this Agreement, unless earlier terminated as provided below.

As to COMPAQ's grant of Immunity from Suit, the Immunity Period as to a Product shall commence on the first date of issuance of any of the applicable COMPAQ patents and shall terminate upon termination of the Agreement as to such Product, unless earlier terminated as provided below.

(i) The Immunity Period as to a particular patent shall terminate six (6) months after a party has given a notice of termination of the Immunity from Suit with respect to a particular patent ("Specific Patent Immunity Termination Notice"). A "Specific Patent Immunity Termination Notice" means a written notice based upon a party's good faith belief after a reasonable amount of research that the other party's Product or Customer System, as applicable, infringes a patent, and which provides sufficient detail to enable a person reasonably proficient in the art to understand the invention and the nature and extent of the alleged infringement.

(ii) Either party may terminate the Immunity from Suit granted to the other party as to all of its patents ("Immunity Period Termination Notice") at any time upon ninety (90) days written notice, which shall automatically also terminate the other (non-initiating) party's Immunity from Suit as to all patents as of the same date. Further, the non-initiating party shall have the option to terminate the entire Agreement at any time after receipt of such Immunity Period Termination Notice, upon thirty (30) days' written notice (but not earlier than the end of the ninety (90) day notice period described above). If COMPAQ terminates the Agreement pursuant to this subsection 12(c)(ii), it shall pay MS all outstanding amounts owed. If MS terminates the Agreement with respect to a Product or in its entirety pursuant to this subsection 12(c)(ii), all outstanding amounts owed shall be due as though MS had terminated this Agreement due to COMPAQ's default (see Section 11(e)).

(iii) Neither party shall have the right to terminate the Agreement on account of the other party giving a Specific Patent Immunity Termination Notice.

(iv) The parties may, but shall not be required to, submit any Specific Patent Immunity Termination Notice or Immunity Period Termination Notice to arbitration, subject to such rules and restrictions as the parties may agree upon.

(v) Nothing in this Section 12(c) itself shall create any defense of laches or estoppel. Such defenses shall be available as they otherwise would be without reference to this Section 12(c).
(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, either party may terminate the Immunity from Suit as to a particular parent(s) immediately upon notice to the other party, solely for the purpose of asserting its patent rights defensively in response to a patent infringement lawsuit filed by a third party against such party. Any such termination of the Immunity from Suit shall be limited to its assertion in that particular suit against that particular third party.

(vii) The limitations of liability and remedy in Sections 12(a) and 12(b) shall not apply to claims of patent infringement asserted by either party against the other following termination of the applicable Immunity Period.

(viii) The parties agree to negotiate in good faith a patent cross license.

13. NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

(a) COMPAQ expressly undertakes to retain in confidence all information and know-how transmitted to COMPAQ by MS that MS has identified as being proprietary and/or confidential or that, by the nature of the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, ought in good faith to be treated as proprietary and/or confidential, and will make no use of such information and know-how except under the terms and during the existence of this Agreement. COMPAQ agrees to use the same degree of care to protect MS confidential information as COMPAQ takes to protect its own confidential information of like importance. However, COMPAQ shall have no obligation to maintain the confidentiality of information that (i) it received rightfully from another party prior to its receipt from MS; (ii) MS has disclosed to a third party without any obligation to maintain such information in confidence; or (iii) has been or is independently developed by COMPAQ. Further, COMPAQ may disclose confidential information as required by governmental or judicial order, provided COMPAQ gives MS prompt notice of such order and complies with any protective order (or equivalent) imposed on such disclosure. COMPAQ shall treat all Product adaptation materials (including source code) as confidential information and shall not disclose, disseminate or distribute such materials to any third party without MS's prior written permission. COMPAQ shall treat the terms and conditions of this Agreement as confidential; however, COMPAQ may disclose such information in confidence to its immediate legal and financial consultants as required in the ordinary course of COMPAQ's business. COMPAQ's obligation under this Section 13 shall extend to the earlier of such time as the information protected hereby is in the public domain through no fault of COMPAQ or five (5) years following termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(b) MS shall have the same obligations in Section 13(a) above with respect to COMPAQ's information and know-how.

14. AUDITS

(a) During the term of this Agreement, COMPAQ agrees to keep all usual and proper records and books of account and all usual and proper entries relating to each Product licensed consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) MS may cause an audit to be made of the applicable COMPAQ records and facilities in order to verify COMPAQ's compliance with the terms of this Agreement and to verify royalty reports issued by COMPAQ and prompt adjustment shall be made to compensate for any errors or omissions disclosed by such audit. Any such audit shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant of national stature (e.g., Deloitte) selected by MS (other than on a contingent fee basis) and shall be conducted during regular business hours at COMPAQ's offices and in such a manner as not to interfere with COMPAQ's normal business activities. Any such audit shall be paid for by MS unless Material discrepancies are disclosed. "Material" shall mean the lesser of Fifty Thousand Dollars (US$50,000.00) or five percent (5%) of the amount that should have been reported, but not less than Ten Thousand Dollars (US$10,000.00). If Material discrepancies are disclosed, COMPAQ agrees to pay MS for the costs associated with the audit not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars (US$20,000.00). In no event shall audits be made more frequently than annually unless the immediately preceding audit disclosed a Material discrepancy.

(c) Neither the right to examine and audit nor the right to receive an adjustment shall be affected by any statement to the contrary, appearing on checks or otherwise, unless expressly agreed to in writing by the party having such right.

(d) In the event that MS makes any claim with respect to an audit, upon COMPAQ's written request MS will make available to COMPAQ the records and reports pertaining to such audit prepared by MS' independent auditor.

16. CONTROLLING LAW; NO FRANCHISE

(a) This Agreement shall be construed and controlled by the laws of the State of Washington. Process may be served on either party in the manner set forth in Section 15 for the delivery of notices or by such other method as is authorized by applicable law or court rule.

(b) Neither this Agreement, nor any terms and conditions contained herein, shall be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship or as granting a franchise as defined in the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, as amended, or 16 CFR Section 436.2(a). The price and payment described in Section 3 of this Agreement shall be construed as a royalty fee for the rights granted in Section 2 of this Agreement, and not as a franchise fee.

17. ATTORNEYS' FEES

If either MS or COMPAQ employs attorneys to enforce any rights arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and other expenses.

18. GENERAL

(a) Any Product which COMPAQ distributes or licenses to or on behalf of the United States of America, its agencies and/or instrumentalities (the "Government"), are provided to COMPAQ with RESTRICTED RIGHTS. Use, duplication or disclosure by the Government is subject to restriction as set forth in subparagraph (c)(1)(ii) of the rights in Technical Data and Computer Software clause at DFAR 252.227-7013, or as set forth in the particular department or agency regulations or rules which provide MS protection equivalent to or greater than the above-cited clause. COMPAQ shall comply with any requirements of the Government to obtain such RESTRICTED RIGHTS protection, including without limitation, the placement of any restrictive legends on the Product software, Product documentation, and any license agreement used in connection with the distribution of the Product. Manufacturer is Microsoft Corporation, One Microsoft Way, Redmond, Washington 98052-6399. Under no circumstances shall MS be obligated to comply with any Governmental requirements relating to the submission of or the request for exemption from submission of cost or pricing data or cost accounting requirements. For any distribution or license of the Product that would require compliance by MS with Governmental requirements relating to cost or pricing data or cost accounting requirements, COMPAQ must obtain an appropriate waiver or exemption from such requirements for the benefit of MS from the appropriate Governmental authority before the distribution and/or license of the Product to the Government.
(b) COMPAQ agrees that it will not, and will take reasonable steps to ensure that its customers will not, directly or indirectly, export or transmit (i) any Product or related documentation and technical data or (ii) any product (or any part thereof), process, or service that is the direct product of a Product, to the People's Republic of China, Afghanistan, or any group Q, S, W, Y, or Z country specified in Supplement No. 1 of Section 770 of the Export Administration Regulations or to any other country to which such export or transmission is restricted by such regulation or statute, without the prior written consent, if required, of the Office of Export Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce, or such other governmental entity as may have jurisdiction over such export or transmission.

(c) This Agreement does not constitute an offer by MS and it shall not be effective until signed by both parties. Upon execution by both parties, this Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and merges all prior and contemporaneous communications. It shall not be modified except by a written agreement signed on behalf of COMPAQ and MS by their respective duly authorized representatives. Unless agreed to in a separate writing signed by both parties, any statement appearing as a restrictive endorsement on a check or other document which purports to modify a right, obligation or liability of either party shall be of no force and effect.

(d) If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. If this Agreement as it relates to any Product(s) licensed hereunder shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable or if this Agreement is terminated as to particular Product(s), this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining Product(s).

(e) No waiver of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions hereof, and no waiver shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the waiving party.

(f) The Section headings used in this Agreement and the attached Exhibits are intended for convenience only and shall not be deemed to supersede or modify any provisions.

19. COMPAQ'S GOVERNMENTAL APPROVAL OBLIGATIONS

COMPAQ shall, at its own expense, obtain and arrange for the maintenance in full force and effect of all governmental approvals, consents, licenses, authorizations, declarations, filings, and registrations as may be necessary or advisable for the performance of all of the terms and conditions of the Agreement including, but not limited to, foreign exchange approvals, import and offer agent licenses, fair trade approvals and all approvals which may be required to realize the purposes of the Agreement. COMPAQ warrants and represents that the Product(s) is importable into the country identified in the "Ship To" address for COMPAQ listed in Section 15.

If any necessary approvals are not or cannot be obtained within a reasonable time in form and substance satisfactory to MS, MS may immediately terminate this Agreement, and upon receipt of such notice by the COMPAQ, this Agreement shall be null, void and of no effect.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date set forth above. All signed copies of this Agreement shall be deemed originals.

You may use this technology with all Microsoft products only for multi-party conferences. For non-Microsoft applications, you should consult the accompanying license agreement or contact the licensor to determine whether application sharing is permitted by the licensor. You must comply with all applicable laws regarding the use of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

Note On JAVA Support. The SOFTWARE PRODUCT may contain support for programs written in JAVA. JAVA technology is not fault tolerant and is not designed, manufactured, or intended for use or resale as on-line control equipment in hazardous environments requiring fail-safe performance, such as in the operation of nuclear facilities, aircraft navigation or communication systems, air traffic control, direct life support machines, or weapons systems, in which the failure of JAVA technology could lead directly to death, personal injury, or severe physical or environmental damage.

If the SOFTWARE PRODUCT is an upgrade, any transfer must include all prior versions of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT.

Termination. Without prejudice to any other rights, Microsoft or Manufacturer may terminate your right to use the SOFTWARE PRODUCT under this EULA if you fail to comply with the terms and conditions of this EULA. In such event, you must destroy all copies of the SOFTWARE PRODUCT and all of its component parts.

FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTIES AND SPECIAL PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO YOUR PARTICULAR JURISDICTION, PLEASE REFER TO THE WARRANTIES INCLUDED BELOW OR PROVIDED WITH THE SOFTWARE PRODUCT PRINTED MATERIALS.

APPENDIX

WARRANTY AND SPECIAL PROVISIONS

FOR

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND ANY OTHER COUNTRY

LIMITED WARRANTY. PC Manufacturer warrants that (a) the SOFTWARE will perform substantially in accordance with the accompanying written materials for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of receipt, and (b) any Microsoft hardware accompanying the SOFTWARE will be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use and service for a period of one (1) year from the date of receipt. Any implied warranties on the SOFTWARE and Microsoft hardware are limited to ninety (90) days and one (1) year, respectively. Some states/jurisdictions do not allow limitations on duration of an implied warranty, so the above limitation may not apply to you.

CUSTOMER REMEDIES. PC Manufacturer's and its suppliers' entire liability and your exclusive remedy shall be, at PC Manufacturer's option, either (a) return of the price paid, or (b) repair or replacement of the SOFTWARE or hardware that does not meet this Limited Warranty and which is returned to PC Manufacturer with a copy of your receipt. This Limited Warranty is void if failure of the SOFTWARE or hardware was caused by accident, abuse, or misapplication. Any replacement SOFTWARE or hardware will be warranted for the remainder of the original warranty period or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer.

NO OTHER WARRANTIES. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, PC Manufacturer and its suppliers disclaim all other warranties, either express or implied, including, but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with regard to the SOFTWARE, the accompanying written materials, and any accompanying hardware. This limited warranty gives you specific legal rights. You may have others which vary from state/jurisdiction to state/jurisdiction.
NO LIABILITY FOR CONSENTIAL DAMAGES. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, in no event shall PC Manufacturer or its suppliers be liable for any damages whatsoever (including without limitation, special, incidental, consequential, or indirect damages for personal injury, loss of business profits, business interruption, loss of business information, or any other pecuniary loss) arising out of the use of or inability to use this product, even if PC Manufacturer has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In any case, PC Manufacturer's and its suppliers' entire liability under any provision of this agreement shall be limited to the amount actually paid by you for the SOFTWARE and/or Microsoft hardware. Because some states/jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages, the above limitation may not apply to you.

Royalty Payments and Reporting Requirements:

Except as provided for in Section 3(d) of the Agreement, COMPAQ agrees to pay MS a royalty, at one of the applicable rates set forth above, multiplied by the greater of the number of (i) Customer System(s) identified under Customer Systems below, net of returns, shipped or placed in use by COMPAQ or (ii) Product(s) shipped or placed in use by or for COMPAQ. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 2(a)(iv), payment of such royalty shall entitle COMPAQ to ship a single copy of the Product(s) listed under MICROSOFT PRODUCT TABLE above with each Customer System, per terms of the Agreement. (1) Preinstallation

The above royalties require that COMPAQ distribute the Products preinstalled on all Customer Systems.

COMPAQ may include Products on a Recovery CD-ROM (QuickRestore CD) that employs a BIOS checking mechanism provided that COMPAQ Authorized Replicator.

The above Product royalties require that COMPAQ’s Product documentation and/or Customer System documentation shall the time of this Agreement export of the Product from the United States is regulated by the International Traffic in Armas Regulations (ITAR, 22 CFR 120-130) of the U.S. State Department Office of Defense Trade Controls. A State Department license is required to export the Product outside of the United States or Canada. COMPAQ agrees that it will not directly or indirectly, export or re-export the Product (or portions thereof) to any country, other than Canada or to any person, entity or end user subject to U.S. Export restrictions without first obtaining a State Department export license. You warrant and represent that neither the U.S. State Department Office of Defense Trade Controls nor any other U.S. federal agency has suspended, revoked or denied your export privileges. Effective January 1, 1997, the U.S. government will transfer export jurisdiction of the Product to the Export Administration Regulations (EAR, 15 CFR 730-779) of the U.S. Commerce Department Bureau of Export Administration.

COMPAQ acknowledges that the transfer of jurisdiction may have no effect on the export control of the Product and that the restrictions of this paragraph will remain unchanged.

(c) COMPAQ may substitute Money 95 for Windows 95 Product (US English) for Money 97 for Windows 95 Product (US English) for Customer Systems manufactured outside of North America and subsequently imported for end customer purchase inside North America in the event that COMPAQ does not have a proper U.S. State Department or U.S. Commerce Department license per Special Provision (b) above.

(d) COMPAQ may substitute Encarta 97 Encyclopedia for Windows 95 Product (US English) for Encarta 97 World Atlas for Windows 95 Product.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 2(a) of the Agreement or under Royalty Payments and Reporting Requirements above, COMPAQ may ship Works 4.0 for Windows 95 preinstalled in both US English and French language versions as part of Exhibit to the License Agreement dated April 1, 1997, between MICROSOFT CORPORATION and COMPAQ COMPUTER CORPORATION.

COMPAQ COMPUTER CORPORATION
PREINSTALLATION AGREEMENT

This Preinstallation Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into this ___ day of ___, 19__, ("Effective Date") by and between COMPAQ COMPUTER CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("COMPAQ") and ________________________________ a ______ corporation ("INSTALLER").

RECATALS

Now, Therefore, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. License Grant.

a. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, COMPAQ grants to INSTALLER a non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide license right to only preinstall the Product(s) in object code form on the hard disk of COMPAQ's personal computers identified in Attachment B ("COMPAQ Customer Systems") to this Agreement.

b. COMPAQ shall make reasonable efforts to ensure INSTALLER's compliance with the terms and conditions imposed on COMPAQ by MS/COMPAQ License Agreement.

2. License Restrictions. The license rights granted to INSTALLER are subject to the following restrictions:

a. INSTALLER shall not reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble any Product(s).

3. Intellectual Property Notices.

a. INSTALLER will not remove any copyright, trademark or patent notice that appears on the Product(s) as delivered by COMPAQ.

b. The parties agree that this Agreement will terminate if INSTALLER violates MS' intellectual property rights as provided herein.

4. Confidentiality. INSTALLER expressly undertakes to retain in confidence all information and know-how transmitted to INSTALLER by COMPAQ that COMPAQ has identified as being proprietary and/or confidential or that, by the nature of the circumstances surrounding the disclosure,ought in good faith to be treated as proprietary and/or confidential to COMPAQ or MS, and will make no use of such information and know-how except under the terms and during the existence of this Agreement. However, INSTALLER shall have no obligation to maintain the confidentiality of information that is independently developed by INSTALLER. Further, INSTALLER may disclose confidential information as required by governmental or judicial order, provided INSTALLER gives COMPAQ prompt notice of such order and complies with any protective order (or equivalent) imposed on such disclosure. INSTALLER shall treat all Product adaptation materials (including source code) as confidential information and shall not disclose, disseminate or distribute such materials to any third party without COMPAQ's and/or MS' prior written permission. b. COMPAQ or MS may cause an audit to be made of the applicable INSTALLER records and facilities in order to verify INSTALLER's compliance with the terms of this Agreement and to verify statements issued by INSTALLER and prompt adjustment shall be made to compensate for any errors or omissions disclosed by such audit. Any such audit shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant selected by COMPAQ or MS (other than on a contingent fee basis) and shall be conducted during regular business hours in INSTALLER's offices and in such a manner as not to interfere with INSTALLER's normal business activities. c. Neither the right to examine and audit nor the right to receive adjustment shall be affected by any statement to the contrary, appearing on checks or otherwise, unless expressly agreed to in writing by the party having such a right.

d. In the event that COMPAQ or MS makes any claim with respect to an audit, upon INSTALLER's request COMPAQ or MS will make available to INSTALLER the records and reports pertaining to such audit prepared by COMPAQ or MS' independent auditor.
